HAPPY HOLIDAYS, AND FAREWELL FROM YOUR EDITOR!

This will be the last issue of Connection for the Fall 2020 semester. We will resume publication in January 2021, with the start of the Spring semester. Please feel free to send us any talks, workshops, or other items you'd like us to publish while we are on hiatus, and we will publish them at the start of the Spring semester.

I also write to let you know that this will be my final issue of Connection, as your editor. I will be retiring from Harvard on December 31st. Cindy Fiore, who handles production, will assume editorial duties as well, at least for the time being. Please send all submissions to her as usual. It has been my pleasure to have been your editor for most of the last 36 years that I have worked to publish this newsletter, now in its 58th year, to bring together in one place announcements of talks, workshops, and other events sponsored by the academic departments that are of interest to this very special community. I hope you have enjoyed reading it, and that it has been useful in helping to connect and bond the WJH community. I bid you all a fond farewell, and wish you the happiest of holidays!
